AGENDA FOR MONDAY'S MEETING

9:30AM – 10:30AM

Guest Speakers

From 9:30 to 10:30, we will have Jarett Hughes, Senior Policy Advisor on Aging from the Office of Governor Jared Polis joining us. His presentation is:

Modernizing Colorado's Aging Network - Legislative Proposals for 2022

The Governor's Office and Department of Human Services are working on two legislative proposals that are fundamental steps in transforming Colorado's aging network. The first proposal discussed will be specific to a strategic investments in aging grant program and the second proposal, which will be the primary focus of the discussion, relates to modernizing the Older Coloradans Act. We hope you can join us and share your input with us! - Jarett Hughes

10:30AM – 11:30AM

Updates from Colorado Center for Aging (CCA) and Q&A

- Andrew Davies, Rich Mauro and Jeanette Hensley will talk about the importance of joining Colorado Center for Aging now in particular those who are on Advocacy Subgroups and the need to get more people active in the organization.
- Rich and Jeanette will talk about the 2022 Legislative Session and how the CCA Advocacy Committee needs to focus and position itself next year.
 - The 2022 Legislative Session starts January 12, 2022
 - Our first CCA Advocacy Committee meeting of 2022 will be on Monday, January 10, 2022
 - Our last 2021 CCA Advocacy Committee meeting will be on Monday, December 13th
- Colorado Center for Aging (CCA) will be offering more in-depth advocacy training in 2022 to paid CCA members.
- We encourage CCA Advocacy Subgroup Team Leads to share information on their advocacy topic.
