AGENDA FOR MONDAY'S MEETING

9:30AM – 10:30AM Guest Speakers

From 9:30 to 10:30, we will have Natalie Mullis, Legislative Council Staff Director and Bill Zepernick, Fiscal Note Manager joining us. They will discuss the role of the Legislative Council Staff (LCS), including the importance of preparing fiscal notes, and what the protocols for the 2022 session will be. Bring your questions to the meeting.

At our Monday, November 22nd Advocacy Committee Meeting we had Jarett Hughes, Senior Policy Advisor on Aging from the Office of Governor Jared Polis join us. He has shared his PowerPoint presentation with us - CLICK HERE

10:30AM – 11:30AM Updates from Colorado Center for Aging (CCA) and Q&A

- Announcement: We will be moving the CCA Advocacy Research folders and documents into a new Cloud starting Thursday, December 17th. If you have any changes to make to the files, please do so between now and Dec 16th. Once the move is completed, we will send you a new link to the files.
- Andrew Davies, Rich Mauro, and Jeanette Hensley will talk about the importance of joining Colorado Center for Aging now in particular those who are on Advocacy Subgroups and the need to get more people active in the organization.
- Rich and Jeanette will talk about the 2022 Legislative Session and how the CCA Advocacy Committee needs to focus and position itself next year.
- The 2022 Legislative Session starts January 12, 2022
- This December 13th CCA Advocacy Committee is our last meeting of 2021
- Our first CCA Advocacy Committee meeting of 2022 will be on Monday, January 10, 2022, from 9:30AM to 11:00AM

CCA Event Training Volunteer CCA Advocates for the 2022 Legislative Session January 11, 2022 – 3:30PM – 5:00PM

If you are interested in being trained for advocacy for older Coloradans for this legislative session join us for this training on January 11th! (Free for CCA Members, $40 for non-Members to become CCA Members and join the training and the cause!)

Rich Mauro and Jeanette Hensley will offer this training. The training will help build pro-active CCA advocates before the 2022 session begins. It will cover the ways to be equipped for conversations with legislators, how to monitor bills, how to testify, and more.
